QUESTION & ANSWER

TELL US ABOUT WHY YOU STARTED YOUR BUSINESS

Our family has been involved in the fishery for years. The fishery has been good to us, but with the wider climate of uncertainty in that industry, we thought we'd try something new. I've always loved dogs—they've been a part of our family for as long as I can remember, so I thought pairing my love of dogs with a business venture would be an ideal fit. Also, when you look at the wider area, there's a need for this sort of service for pet owners.

TELL US A BIT ABOUT YOURSELF

I'm Terri Lynn Meadus, and I'm the owner/operator of All Aboard Doggy Daycare & Boarding, a new dog daycare and boarding business in Harbour Grace.

WHY HARBOUR GRACE?

The main reason is that we're from here. Plus, our family's property was a great space to construct the building and outdoor play area. We're in a more secluded area, too, which helps, considering the nature of the business—dogs need lots of space! In terms of location, Harbour Grace is a good place to offer this service, as we're able to attract customers from neighbouring towns and the broader region.

HOW'S BUSINESS BEEN SO FAR?

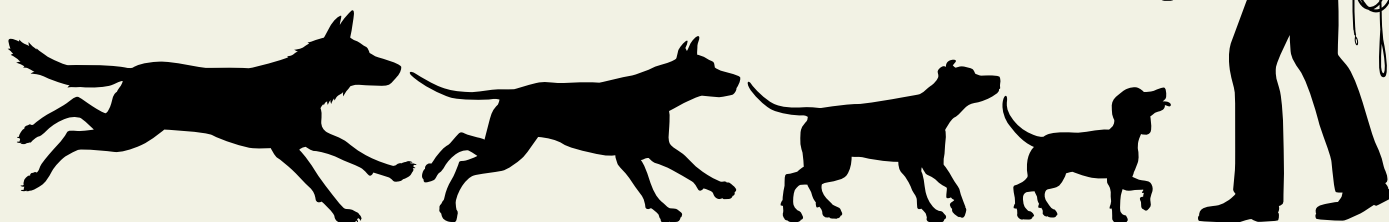

It's been great! We've been open for a couple months now. The word is getting out there, and we're getting more and more regulars from Harbour Grace and neighbouring towns.

ANY CHALLENGES?

Just the normal growing pains with operating a new business. Again, it's something new for me, and I'm learning as I go. The permit and approval process delayed our opening a bit—we hoped to open last fall—but we're open now and in the swing of things. CBDC have been a great help with their program funding. They're an excellent resource for anybody exploring the idea of opening a business.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE?

Right now, we're thinking we might expand the outdoor play area this summer. We'd have to construct a new fence and do some landscaping. As I said earlier, dogs love to have a large area to roam, and we have plenty of space. We also have an area in the building which can be used for grooming; so I'm trying to find a dog groomer who'd be interested in leasing this space onsite.
